  13. Course Description: The Accelerated Resolution Therapy (ART) training program uses a combination of video clips, showing the application of the therapy model, as well as hands-on practice and interactive lectures. The power of eye movements, added to a foundation in several evidenced based therapies, combined with ART's creative therapeutic interventions, results in the effectiveness of ART to treat a multitude of problems. During the three-day Basic ART training, participants will learn how to use ART with clients to reduce the symptoms of anxiety, sexual abuse, grief, obsessive compulsive thinking, PTSD and more. ART is an eye movement brief modality therapy that quickly aids clients in resolving their issues. The eye movements are calming and make new connections with existing information in the brain. This process accelerates resolution of problems as it facilitates the client in making cognitive and behavioral changes.

Objectives

After completing the three-day Basic ART training, attendees will be able to:

1. identify and put a client's problem into the ART format which is a problem "scene."
2. select the clients that are appropriate for the ART therapy.
3. explain the difference between the first time through the client's scene, the second time and what happens the third time the client envisions their problem scene.
4. use ART's "Voluntary Image Replacement" to guide a client to erase a negative image in their mind.
5. determine the appropriate script to use whether it is the "Basic" script which is for a past trauma or the "Typical Day" script which they use with an on-going problem.
6. use eye movements with the correct speed, with the correct amount and the correct hand movements.
7. explain why each of the steps in the ART protocol is used.
8. identify and explain what the verbiage of the ART script means
9. move sensations in a client's body using eye movements
10. help a client with a strong emotion to stabilize them and move those sensations.
11. recognize what each ART training covers, Basic, Advanced and Enhanced.

12. appropriately end an ART session and explain to their clients what they might experience after an ART session.
